Local Rustlings.
A. Young is repairing the school building.

The big Concord coach went out to San Pedro to-day.

August 18th is election day for Cerrillos town officers.

Mrs. Waring visited friends at Albuquerque last week.

It is dangerous to carry a gun. When will people learn this?

News items have had to be condensed to some extent this week to find space.

A newspaper must have a wide-spread circulation to accomplish great good.

Rumor hints that Cerrillos will have a double wedding soon. Oh, Cupid! you little fat rascal!

No especial change in the ore market this week. Prices remain steady at last week's quotations.

The advertisement of the Second National Bank, of Santa Fe, appears regularly in this paper henceforth.

Under the impetus of many improvements, present and prospective, Santa Fe is beginning to make good progress.

The children's missionary entertainment at the M. E. Church Sunday night, was of unusual interest. The attendance was also good.

As this season promises to be an unusually prolific one for fruits, this exhibit at the Fair should be made an exceedingly attractive one.

The Cerrillos post-office has been removed to the Cerrillos Supply Co.'s building, where Postmaster Jenks is fitting things up in city style.

Unless promises are all to be broken, southern Santa Fe county is at the beginning of an era of prosperity greater and on a better basis than at any previous period.

Percy Grier gave a birthday party on Tuesday evening of this week to a number of his young friends. It was the 18th anniversary of his birth. The evening was very much enjoyed by all.

This office has eight as good located lots as there is in the Cerrillos Land Co.'s addition, for sale for $225 cash. The lots are worth three times that money. Run here quick, if you want them.

John Gray runs a big excursion from Santa Fe to San Ildefonso, Sunday. The fare is a dollar for the round trip. It will be on the general picnic, good-time order. All Cerrillos people who can are invited to come up and join the merry throng.

Instantly Killed.

James Fairweather, a miner who recently came here from Colorado and who had since been working at the Cash Entry, quit Tuesday evening and came to town, intending to start that night for Kingman, Arizona. He received the money on his time check, drank to some extent and becoming a little quarrelsome, made a gun play or two on the street. Deputy Sheriff Z. M. Crutchfield was sent to look after him and found him at a table in Sam Sing's California Restaurant. As soon as the officer entered the door, Fairweather arose from the table and drew his gun. Officer Crutchfield covered him, then told him to consider himself under arrest. No attention being paid he was ordered to throw up his hands. On his refusing to do this and seeing him raising his gun for a shot, Crutchfield fired and Fairweather dropped dead at the report. The ball passed through the upper region of his heart, causing death almost instantly. An inquest was held two hours later, and a verdict rendered according to the above facts, as produced by testimony. The remains were interred the following day. Fairweather was an Englishman and not known to have any relatives in this country. He was supposed to be about 30 years old. After the shooting officer Crutchfield telegraphed Sheriff Chavez of the killing, and that officer arrived on the first train, making a careful personal examination into the affair. Yesterday Crutchfield was given a preliminary hearing, he having been placed under arrest. The evidence produced at this examination was the same as at the inquest, and he was acquitted, the decision being quickly reached that the killing was justifiable, being in self defense and in the discharge of official duty.

The Military Encampment will be a great feature of the Fair this fall and will be well worth going to see of itself. The grand ball to be given one evening during fair week will be rendered more attractive than ever by the presence of the gallant officers and boys in blue.

The Santa Fe New Mexican flashes up a big coal deal for Cerrillos this week. A Milwaukee syndicate are represented as interested parties—also the A. T. & S. F. railroad coal company in a mining capacity. If correct it is probably a stepping-stone to the long sought for transfer of the entire coal interests southwest of Cerrillos.

At a meeting of the directors of the Second National Bank of Santa Fe, July 6, 1891, Mr. James D. Proudft was elected cashier, vice Wayne G. Simmons, resigned. Mr. Proudft is a young man of excellent business ability and pleasing address. He has worked his way steadily up in the bank to the present responsible position of cashier, and his promotion is a merited tribute to the respect and confidence which he enjoys from others.

J. M. Evans, M. B. Bowman, Peter Townsend, Wm Kemp, Ed. Lambert, Spencer & Swan, James Riley, B. F. Pinkerton, D. Jacoby, Peron, Fontaine & Co., M. F. Hawkins, Ad. Rogers and J. W. Y.; E. L. Hammond, Dow City, Iowa. Are RUSTLER subscribers this week.

If you have an item of interest, hand it in. We try to get them all, but may fall on one occasionally.

Personal Rustlings.

Sam Johnson is down from Santa Fe.

Mr. Whited returned from the Pecos, Sunday.

H. P. Hogan is on a business trip to Las Vegas.

Marion Simer and family left on Monday for Durango.

Col. Ned Wyncoop, of Santa Fe, is improving in health.

Randolph Kelley is visiting at Albuquerque this week.

Hon. C. F. Easley visited Santa Fe on business Tuesday.

Zed Crutchfield went to the Pecos after his family to-day.

Sheriff Frank Chavez was down from Santa Fe yesterday.

L. G. Jones made a business trip to Santa Fe, Monday.

L. D. Sugar and Richard Green tripped to San Pedro Saturday.

John Doyle returned from the Pecos. No fish yarns reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Bailey were over from San Pedro Sunday.

B. J. McQuinn came in from San Pedro Tuesday and went south.

James A. Jackson, Dick Mathews and John Halcutter are fishing on the Pecos.

Mr. Chas. Thayer, of Santa Fe, is examining mining property at Silverton, Colorado.

Mr. Leo English, one of the old-time successful miners of Dolores, was in town Tuesday.

A letter from J. Muralter announces his safe arrival at San Francisco, with which city he seems well pleased.

M. B. Bowman was in town on Monday, making a trip from San Pedro to Santa Fe. He is engineer on one shift at the smelter.

Mr. H. S. Lutz, relief agent for this division, came down from Las Vegas yesterday. He will relieve the agent at Lamby for a month.

Mr. Myer Friedman, of Las Vegas, and Miss Bessie Sugar, of Cerrillos, drove over to San Pedro Tuesday, returning in the evening.

T. Corry, representing Albuquerque's bright illustrated Adobeland, has been a visitor to the camps of south Santa Fe county this week.

Will Coleman, conductor on the Santa Fe Southern, is at home on a short lay-off on account of a sprained wrist, the result of getting his hand caught in a brake.

Chas. Burkhardt left on Wednesday night's train for Ft. Apache, Arizona, to take position as saddler at the post. He is a first-class workman and will have a good situation and a fair salary. He has the RUSTLER's best wishes for success.

Messrs. Geo. W. Knaebel and Arthur Knaebel, Santa Fe, drove down yesterday on business, making the return trip in the day.

Geo. W. is the most enterprising rustler Santa Fe has got, and this RUSTLER is always glad to have him come.

W. E. Dame was speeding his high-stepper down the Cash Entry cañon Saturday, himself and Charley Lyons in the vehicle—only touching the high places—when a wheel struck a rock, tipping the buggy and dumping them both out. Dame escaped without injury but Lyons got a badly sprained wrist.

Mr. J. L. Gates, of Milwaukee, was a visitor to Cerrillos and San Pedro this week. Mr. Gates is one of the most energetic men of the country, and much of his energy is at present being expended in the attempt to induce other capitalists to cooperate with him in developing the rich mines and placer fields of south Santa Fe county.

San Pedro Rustlings.

The stage line travel is noticeably increasing.

Dr. Lane, the popular druggist, Sundayed in Albuquerque.

Mrs. S. C. White is convalescing from her paralytic stroke.

Manager R. Y. Anderson, of the Lincoln-Lucky, is visiting Denver.

Mr. Ad. Rogers, one of the smelter men, has a child critically ill.

J. M. Evans has a good family horse, buggy and saddle, for sale cheap.

The new advertisement of W. H. Weed's big store, can be seen elsewhere in this paper.

Ed. E. Sluder has taken the position of assayer and smelter superintendent at the Copper Co., plant, vice Wm Kemp, resigned.

Superintendent J. T. McLaughlin, of the Copper Co., accompanied by Mrs. McLaughlin and little daughter, visited Santa Fe, Saturday.

Merchant Richard Giblin has spent most of the week in Santa Fe, seeking to recuperate his health, which since spring, has been somewhat impaired.

Miss Flora Bradbury, a charming and accomplished young lady from Los Angeles, California, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury, formerly of Cerrillos, but now at the Lincoln-Lucky mine.

The RUSTLER is read by all the miners and mining men of south Santa Fe county. It is as good an advertising medium for the business men of San Pedro as would be a paper published directly in their own camp. One copy is read by a dozen different men.

Business is looking up somewhat as each succeeding pay-day brings more money into the country. At present there need be no idle men in the camp, and are none, except such few as choose to be idle.

There appears to be plenty of work for those who want to work and are capable of earning wages.

Mr. J. M. Evans, the efficient book-keeper for the Copper Co., had the misfortune to lose the infant child of himself and wife, recently. The dreadful disease, spinal meningitis, has caused the death of a number of children in the camp. Dr. Land, the Company physician, also recently lost a child with this disease.

The case of Maximo Herrera, the Mexican who about a month ago backed into a slag pot of red-hot slag from the furnace, is one of the most remarkable for escape on record. He was pulling a fresh filled pot and backed against one he had just left standing in the yard, sitting down square into the molten slag which had just formed a crust over the top. He could not extricate himself and had to be pulled out. When this was done his clothing dropped from the part of his body embedded in the slag, and a touch would remove the flesh, so thoroughly was it cooked. He is now going around on crutches apparently almost recovered.

E. H. Dunbar received very painful injuries last Friday by being caught in a part of the mill machinery which broke from its support and fell, badly cutting and bruising his left leg, from the knee to the ankle. The casting which fell weighed 1300 pounds, and had it not partially caught, would have cut his leg cleanly off. As it is he has a dangerously mangled limb but no bones broken. He has the best of care, every miner in the camp being his friend, and with such care as is especially given him by W. H. Swyers, Frank Wilmuth and others of the boys, he is apparently doing as well as the circumstances could possibly admit. There are no unfavorable symptoms and it is hoped that his recovery will be speedy.

A show and baile were to be given in the Armijo hall, property of Alex. Rogers, on Saturday night. The parties giving the entertainment were the same that were here a number of times. In the early part of the evening the performance was broken up by a fight between two Mexicans, and the small audience dispersed. Soon after a large lamp fell to the floor, scattering burning oil over the floor and down through the cracks. In spite of vigorous effort to extinguish the blaze the building was soon in flames and was entirely consumed. The night was very still and the building being somewhat isolated, there was no spread of the flames. The building cost about $700. No insurance. Mr. Rogers takes bad luck lightly, still he has the general sympathy of the community in his loss.

James Aumac, a ranchman near San Pedro, came in to spend the 4th and left his horse in Schick's stable. He drank considerable, but when last seen after the 4th appeared duly sober and started out of camp on foot, apparently only for a walk. He has not been seen by anyone in the camp since, though recently a teamster claims to have seen a man answering his description near the coal banks, and who claimed to have walked from San Pedro, and to have left his horse there in a stable. His disappearance creates considerable interest. He is said to be an inveterate drinker, but owes no one and his leaving his horse in the stable and going away without notice excites some comment, although it is stated that he has left other points quite suddenly and without reason. He is about 50 years old and has no one to look after, much of his life having been spent on a cow ranch. He has a well-to-do-brother at Ottumwa, Iowa.

Mine Rustlings.

The Mingo mine at San Pedro, is said to be looking fine.

The Cash Entry is putting in additional concentrating machinery.

S. P. Conger says he will make great effort to put up a Huntington mill at Dolores.

Jas. Lucas, of Golden, has strong hopes of getting up a mill on his Tuerto property.

People on the inside appear to think that the big concentrating plant for the San Pedro copper mine is reasonably sure.

Some good news of prospective coal developing enterprise, which, when completed will add much to the business of Cerrillos, can soon be given to the public.

H. F. Strong has a car load of power machinery en route for Dolores, which he will put up on the Cunningham, to run his Narod mill. The machinery was shipped from Binghamton, Connecticut.

It is reported that Col. Glass and Neal Gentry have secured a lease on the Wolf stamp mill at Dolores. Col. Glass states in an interview, that the prospect for securing such lease appears satisfactory, but that the proceedings are not yet a matter of record. A few days however, will likely settle the matter.

FOR SALE—This office has for sale from $25,000 to $30,000 worth of mining machinery, good as new, together with a frame building enclosing the same, costing $1,200. The outfit consists in part, of a 200-horse boiler, an 85-horse engine, crusher, breaker, Gates Pulverizer costing $4,000—eight concentrating tables, large iron tank, shafting, piping, wheelbarrows, shovels, drills and drill steel, etc. The whole outfit can be bought for $5,000. A snap.
